

Chapter - 5
Community eating
Worksheet – 1

Q.1 Fill in the blanks:

1. _____ together brings a feeling of being a part of the community.
2. Free meals are served in _____ and temples.
3. The meal served in a gurdwara is known as _____ and the one served in a temple is known as _____.
4. People of all religions sit _____ on the floor and eat.
5. In langars and bhandaras, food is served on _____.

Q.2 True false:

1. Sharing creates a sense of equality and brotherhood among the people.
2. Only vegetarian food is cooked and served by the volunteers.
3. Eating together teaches equality to the community members.
4. Food is prepared in small quantities during community meals.
5. People of all religion come and eat together on birthdays.

Q.3 Subjective questions:

1. Define community eating.
2. Enlist occasions wherein people eat together.
3. How are community meals different from social occasions?
4. How are meals organized in gurudwaras and temples?
5. What influence does eating together create on social life?