

Chapter - 6
Houses then & now
Worksheet – 2

Q.1 Fill in the blanks:

1. Multistoried buildings have many houses called _____ or _____.
2. _____ in cities is increasing day by day thus, there is shortage of space.
3. Poor people build these temporary houses using waste materials like plastic or metal sheets, cloth, called a _____.
4. Shack lacks basic _____ like water supply, electricity, etc.
5. With the development and increase in _____, people are moving from villages to cities.

Q.2 True false:

1. The materials used for construction of kutchha house are iron, cement, baked bricks and concrete.
2. Pucca houses protect us from rain, lightning, wild animals, storms, floods, thieves etc.
3. There is a regular supply of electricity and water in urban areas.
4. In some cities, the government is shifting the slum dwellers to locations where they are provided with low-cost houses.
5. Bungalows may be one or two storeys high.

Q.3 Subjective questions:

1. How are houses made in urban areas are different from houses of rural areas?
2. What is a permanent house?

3. What are slums?
4. What facilities do houses of slums lack?
5. What are bungalows?

© PRAADIS
EDUCATION
DO NOT COPY