

Chapter – 20
Waste & its management
Worksheet – 1

Q.1 Fill in the blanks:

1. The waste generated by farmlands, crop fields are _____.
2. Due to _____ and increase in population, lot of waste is produced.
3. Paper, plastic, fruits and vegetable peels, garden litter are examples of _____ waste.
4. Industrial waste includes waste from _____ of textile, cement, power stations.
5. Due to the _____ of cities, huge amount of waste is generated.

Q.2 True false:

1. Some materials can be reused again while some has to be discarded.
2. Waste that mixes with soil is non-biodegradable.
3. Vegetable peels is an example of biodegradable waste.
4. Plastic does not mix with soil.
5. Syringes, broken injections are examples of hospital waste.

Q.3 Subjective questions:

1. What is waste?
2. How is waste produced?
3. Differentiate between degradable and non- biodegradable waste.
4. What is meant by agricultural waste?
5. What is municipal waste?