

Chapter - 10
Food for plants and animals
Worksheet – 1

Q.1 Fill in the blanks:

1. Green plants make their own food by the process of -
_____.
2. Plants are also called _____.
3. Photosynthesis takes place in the _____ leaves of plants.
4. The leaves are also called _____ of the plants.
5. Small pores present on the surface of the leaves are called
_____.

Q.2 True false:

1. Water is absorbed from the soil by the stem.
2. The extra food is stored in different parts of the plants.
3. To meet their nitrogen nutrition, insectivorous plants capture and digest insects.
4. Pitcher plants has its cavity filled with sweet smelling nectar that attracts the insects towards it.
5. Plants which capture insects and digest them are called parasitic plants.

Q.3 Subjective questions:

1. Define photosynthesis.
2. What is stomata?
3. What are insectivorous plants? Give examples.
4. What is a host?
5. Define parasitic plants. Give examples.