

Chapter - 15
Water
Worksheet – 2

Q.1 Fill in the blanks:

1. Wheat and sugarcane need _____ quantity of water.
2. Tea and coffee also require a lot of water but it should not get _____ in the fields.
3. Fields are supplied with water through _____.
4. Irrigation is the method in which a _____ amount of water is supplied to plants at regular intervals.
5. _____ are deep holes dug into the ground to bring underground water to the surface of the Earth.

Q.2 True false:

1. Every crop requires the same amount of water to grow.
2. Rice and jute need a lot of water.
3. A tube well is a type of well in which a long pipe (or tube) is bored underground.
4. Tanks are low lying areas where rainwater is collected.
5. Rotation of the wheel causes the water in the buckets to fall on the other side.

Q.3 Subjective questions:

1. Differentiate between soluble and insoluble substances.
2. What is meant by density?
3. Write down three states of matter.
4. What is meant by irrigation?
5. What are canals?