

Chapter -5

Animals- Senses and Behaviors

Worksheet – 1

Q.1 Fill in the blanks:

1. Animals use their _____ to find food.
2. Dogs have a very strong sense of _____.
3. Dogs are also used by police for detecting _____ and _____.
4. The long, thin _____ on the heads of ants help them to smell and locate food.
5. _____ smell with their tongue.

Q.2 True false:

1. Animals use their sense organs to find food and to know the presence of danger.
2. To find their prey in water, crocodile smells with their nostrils.
3. Scavengers use their enhanced sense of sight to find dead animals.
4. Members of cat family can see much better in the dark as compared to humans.
5. Vultures can see even the smallest prey from a very long distance.

Q.3 Subjective questions:

1. Enlist the five senses.
2. How do animals find their food?
3. What enables owls to see in dim light?
4. Why is dog used by police in rescue operations?
5. Name the types of eyes found in ants and houseflies.